NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Hoover Will Give Jobs Only to Those Who Prove Their Fitness.

RIGID serutiny of all applicants A for tederal appointments is to be the policy of the present administration. President Hoover has an nounced in no uncertain terms that In the future every applicant for of fice in the government service must demonstrate his fitness for the job His first move in this direction is the repudiation of the present Republic an organizations in Mississippi, Boull Carolina and Georgia, on the grounds of irresponsibility and corruption and the demand that they be replaced by Republican leaders possessing in tegrity and the confidence of their communities. In Texas, Alabama, Plorida and some other states, where the existing leadership has fallen into disrepute, the President announced that these leaders would be compelled to divide authority with advisory committees acceptable to the administration.

The President's action is based on the report of the Brookhart committee of the senute which made an investigation into the sale of federal appointments and other political corruption in that region.

This important announcement by tend to the the White House. He said: "Hecent exposure of abuse in rec ommendations for federal office, particularly in some parts of the states of Bouth Carolina, Georgia and Misalastoni, under which some of the federal departments, mainly the post office, were inisted in appointments, obviously render it impossible for the old organizations in those states to command the confidence of the administration, nithough many members of these organizations are not subfeet to edition. But such conditions are intolerable to public serv-Its, are repognant to the ideals and purposes of the Republican pasts, are unjust to the people of the Bouth and must be ended.

"The duty of reorganization, so as to correct these conditions, rests with the people of those states, and sli efforts to that said will receive the hearty consersion of the administration. If these three states are unable to initiate much prespiration through the tendership of men who will commutat confidence and protect the public service, the different fedaral departments will be compelled 742 to adopt other methods to serure ad-804 vice as to the selection of federal # 11 employees.

"In other states, including Alabama, Arkabess, Louislans, Teras $43 and Plorida, the Republican leader. 931 alin has in recent times shown in creasing strength and is now rendering able and conscientions service in maintaining wholescens organization, under whose advice the appointments to public office have steadily improved and commended themselves to the ellicens of those sistes with increased confidence in the party"

A VERITABLE carthquake bit the accept market early in the week when rall money went skyward. The first jump to it per cent caused a first class money scare in Walt street Howks cano touring down with a appeal for pairon | erast | Frightened traders sold for age through the columns and price they rould get, almost detourslish a the market. Later, when bargain butlets, investment trusts and insilfulliant beyon toping, prices began the spenic releg and recovered some of the ground look.

Toward the end of the neek the bulls recovered control of the market when acsurances came that the money panie was not to be continued. Money ensed to 15 per cent and was in ade quate supply. New York banks kept the market unhampered as to any stringency in funds. The National City bank sent $25,000,000 over to the exchange to be loaned at rates from 16 to 20 per cent. J. P. Morgan sent over $10,000,000. This brought same cheer to the situation. Short covering got under way and prices rearted buoyantly.

Under the urging of the federal reserve board the strings about the credit supply have for some time been drawing tighter and tighter. It is the plan of the board to bring about a diversion of the country's money from speculative markets to normal channels of business. Should the week's mammotu liquidation serve its purpose, bankers anticipate a gradual relaxation of the purse strings.

One result of the market upset was that several houses sent out notices to their customers that hereafter all margins would be 50 per cent. Brokerage firms admitted that if the federal reserve policy was continued and if the banks persisted in refusing to accept all kinds of securities and continued marking down the Josephy rates, all margins in the street would have to be 60 per cent to case the strain on the brokers.

THE arrival in Washington of 1 Henry L. Rilmson, former governor general of the Philippines, to take up his new duties as secretary of sinte, completes President Hoover's caldnet. Recreixry Etimson improblems and the duties of the of fice. Former Berreiary Kellogg remalard with him for a few days to

A SOTHER alephane diseaser has taken its toll of those who sen tore in the nie. A plint and three torretuers were killed when the llyan icomplane to which they were fishing from Columbia to New York excelled litto a tree in a dense log on Bouth montain between Calchrook and Mount Greine, Pa. It is generally admitted that the total indemnity will be in the neighberhood of ten billions of dollars, but it remains to be figured out at the present value through the discount rate over the number of years it runs. The Germans stand put for 37 years and the French insist on 58 years.

R CPUBLICAN members of the house committee on agriculture, which is conducting hearings on the farm relief problem, are said to be almost unanimous in their approval of President Hoover's farm relief program. All the Republican members of the house committee as well as the members of the senate committee, which is also conducting hearings, have conferred with the President and have been acquainted privately with his general views on the form which legislation should take.

THE Europa, pride of the German I merebant marine, worth about $12,000,000, was completely gutted by fire. The building of the ship had taken about 18 months of patient night and day labor and was practically finished. Oning to the large quantities of paint, tar, off and other inflammable materials aboard, the firemen found themselves up against a hopeless task in fighting the flames. An overheated plumber's stove was be-Hered to have caused the confingration.

TORNADUES and rains have added to the horrors the Bouth has had to endure lately. Taking stock of the damage while floods still raged in some sections it was found that 45 lives wer the tell taken by the two elements in els states. The greatest loss of life was in Tennessee, where 20 lives were lost at Harriman, seven at Backwood and three at Webster. Four of the deaths were in Kentucky. With the exception of Tennessee and Replacky, where major streams were rising, conditions were improving over the Bouth.

A storewide sale. Every department participates —And we quote a few of the hundreds of values to give you an idea of the opportunities the sale affords

Our Anniversary is justly famous as the year's most important sale event in Northern New England. First, because it is store wide in scope; bringing an almost unlimited variety of selection at exceptional savings. Second, because it is a sale of our own stocks entirely; therefore of merchandise that is exactly the same as that we sell throughout the year. Third, because it comes right at a time when everyone is ready to buy new things to wear and for the home. Fourth, because the values and savings are so unusually attractive. The Anniversary sale is an expression of our appreciation for the business that has made possible our new store. And we believe that the best way of showing our appreciation to our old friends and of winning new customers is to hold an eight day Anniversary Sale at this time featuring very liberal price reductions.

The TOWN DOCTOR

NO TOWN EVER LOST A CUSTOMER FROM BEING TOO CLEAN

Calvin Cookinge, addressing The American Federation of Aris and The American Association of Music, said, "It clothes make the man, and certainly good dress gives one a sense of self-respect and poise, how much more is it true that clean, beautiful surroundings lend a moral tone to a community?" And added, "We are gradually getting rid of the oppressive ugliness of our Oppressive ugliness: a good house next to a shack; a beautiful lawn with a vacant lot overgrown with weeds adjacent; unsightly outbuildings; highway entrances cluttered up with nondescript, claptrap, unpainted and otherwise obnoxious billboards; store eigns of every sort, shape and description protending at all sorts of angles, from store buildings—some high, some low wall derogatory to any sense of attractiveness; poorly kept streets, open dumps, unpainted buildings, a dilapidated square, tin can alleys, visible polution of streams, and ngliest and most oppressive of all-a citizenship with an inferiority complex, one devoid of civic pride.

Oppressive ugliness is that which makes residents of a community say, 'Oh, you won't mind that after you've lived here awhite"; and the alisence of which makes a stranger say, "I like this place."

Oppressive ugliness is that which creates atmosphere. How often have you gone into communities or mercantile establishments and given as a reason for not being said on the place that there is no "atmosphere?"

Atmosphere is that which invites or repels; almospere is the making or losing of sales, prestige and good will Oppressive ugliness relates materially to appearance. How does your town look to a customer! Eighty percent of those things purchased today are sold through, or influenced by the eye. Therefore, how your town or community looks is important.

This is the season of the year when everything oppressive should be aunihilated. Nature is ready to help make things attractive. Start now to help take your town or community to a good old-fabioned house cleaning: clean it ap-scrub it up-dress it up-and keep it up.

Include yourself in the cleaning: get rid of the mental cobwebs that make everything about your place of abode so commonplace. Rid yourself of the superstition and prejudice that your town cannot be as modern, attractive and interesting as any city anywhere.

Like life, your town or community is what you and the rest of the people like you work to make it. It is just us big or just us little as the take a tenspoonful of Tanlac before meals.

Mr. Benjamin Pratt, Federal Post Road, Brunswick, Me, says: "I was 30 lbs. underweight and had lost all energy and vitality. After 0 bottles of Tanlac I gained 50 lbs. and feel like a cchoolboy. My sppetite is ravenous and I never suffer from indigestion."

Tanlac is wonderful for indigestion and constipation—gas, pains, nausea, dixiness and headsches. It brings back lost appetite, helps you digest your food, and gain strength and weight. It contains no mineral drugs: it is made of roots, barks and herbs, nature's own medicines for the sick. The cost is less than 2 cents a dose. Get a bottle from your druggist. Still the Indians went on with the drying of their clothes, occasionally calling to the dogs to keep quiet. "De dog are scare to leave de firefor wolf. Onice de une smell us. He

"What d' ynh mean?"

"Hurry up, I show you." As the eastern horizon ilt with pearl and amber and rose, from a thicket of willows where the lake trail cut the shore, Brock watched. Behind him in the forest Gaspard stood beside a spruce from which the lower branches had been lopped, working with a pointed, charred stick at a white blaze slashed with his trapping ax. At his side in the snow cruckled a little fire of dry spruce.

Shortly, Gaspard called, and Brock, who, from his position, commanded a view of the lake trail for miles, joined his partner.

"Let me see, now, it I can read it," sold Brock, as he puzzled over the sylluble character writing of the Crees. burned black into the white tablet of the preted spruce.

"Cree camp-four men-helow here -Black Inck-five cleds-at little Brock, "Great glory, Gaspard, that'll run 'em out of the country!"

You're a genius, old pard. Put 'er here!

The grinning friends shook each others' mittened hands. Gaspard's stratugem was a flash of genius, for five sled teams ofcaut at least ten men on the frall of the free-traders' Cree servants. The news that five sled teams of provincial police were in the country should cause a speedy stampede north if-they didn't smell n rat In this bold message left on a traveled trap-line trall,

"Of course," said Brock, "they may spot_this for just what it is—a bluft." Gaspard godded in agreement. "Dey t'ink get ver' strange for sure, but dey weel have worry just de sam', 1 know dem Cree."

Gaspard's Indian blood enabled him to read only too we'l the mercurial and superstitious mental make-up or his mother's people-to know their weaknesses and value their sturdler qualities.

"Well, let's go, we've got a long day ahead," said Brock. "I'll take a last squint at the lake traff to see if they've started this way." Returning from the shore, he said, as he slipped his feet into the thongs of his shoes and followed Gaspard Into the southeast, "No sight of 'em yet, they're a lazy crew."

These they circled, for on open take or muskeg they could be seen for great alsfances. But, to their surprise, they crossed no country trapped by their enemies. Evidently the mysterious disappearance of their friends had aroused in the trappers of "Red Beard" a wholesome dread of the Yellow Leg Lake watershed. Nevertheless, not for an instant did the canny Unspard relax his vigitance as the two traveled southeast in the direction of the outlet of the big lake. Frequently through the day, white Brock kept on, the halfbreed buried blinself to a back trall. If there was a bold and had seen at the lake, the boys would "Look !" At Caspard's feet can a settled trail of the great tusks, and the savage filled with new show but plainly dis- strength of the Ungava, might overilogoishable to a bashman.

Fifty yards away was a snowedover, brush lean-to trapping camp, similar to those Gaspard and Brock had built at the far end of their own trap-lines. As the boys reached and curiously examined the abandoned camp covered with a foot of new snow, with an exclamation Gaspard suddenly walked up the trull and stood looking at a blazed spruce.

"Listen to dist" he called to Brock who was scraping away the snow from the fire-hale of the camp. Brock quickly joined his friend, who read: "Autoine not come book, I wait ten steeps. If I stay dey weet find me here. I go to Beeg Carcajou.

heled Brock. "They must have made till camp to hunt us from. He didn't sup to hunt for his partner—this life pond. Etiente," stowly translated to Jacques-but made tracks. Not such like a partner I've got." And firm's slapped the wiry Gaspard affor florately on the back,

Two days later they were back in their camp south of Big Yellow-Log. Through February, or Mikisiwipisim, the Cree Moon of the Eagle, there was little rest for the two trappers, who were daily adding to their fur-pack. In the timber the snow had settled and in the barrens, the wind had hammered and packed it, greatly improving the sledding. Every two days now, Brock made the circuit of les lines with Pinsa. The for was got so prime us in the early winter, but, efter the winds and blizzards of Jan- 151 pary, foxes and lynx were traveling [hare, fisher and marten extending their ranges, and the otter seeking new dshing water which he entered at the broken lee of falls and emplies. Often they found their traps sprung and balt eaten by thieving squirrel legs and feet of an imprisoned "snowy" which a plundering wolverine had calmly torn to pieces. For ten days this carenjou baffled the in go naity of Gaspard and Brock. Time and again, with an uncomer shrewdt.c.s, he avoided the traps buried in the snow beside balted fisher cabanes and lyux sets; but In the end he fell victim to his own cunning. For, one night, in the act of tearing down the he stopped into the effect of traps burled in the snow by the boys in an-ilclimition of this very maneuver. It was a verifable demon of fury and savage desperation that Brock and Clash found valting them, one quiet morning. As he watched their approach, the evil, red eyes of the trapped carratou flamed with bate. Crouched in the snow, his rust brown halr stiff on neck and back his overful forelegs armed with elmiter-like claws which would rip a wolf's peli into ribbons, ready to strike, the in-battle with the strange foe who chal-ment, Brock had him by the collar. "No, you don't, old boy!" cried

Brock, building his encased bushy, the she has been duly appointed adwolvering, anchored to the enight clog of the trap, snarled his defiance, his thick forciegs tensed for the double slash of knife like claws which clump of spruce or fir to watch the inwalted blash's lunge.
